DAY 1 OF THIRD TERM

Modi clears KISAN fund, 30 mn houses for poor

Several BJP-ruled states follow populist path after election results

SANJEEB MUKHERJEE
New Delhi, 10 June

In his first decision after taking charge for the third time, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday signed a file transferring the 17th instalment of the PM-Kisan Samman Nidhi (PM-KISAN) fund, amounting to nearly ₹20,000 crore, to around 9.3 crore farmers. Later in the day, in its first meeting, the Union cabinet under his leadership also approved government assistance for the construction of three crore houses under the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana (PMAY).

PMAY has been in implementation since 2015-16 to assist eligible rural and urban households in constructing houses with basic amenities. Out of the 30 million new houses approved, sources said approximately 20 million will be built under the rural component of the scheme, while the remaining will be constructed under the urban part.

Under the rural component — known as PMAY-Grameen — new allottees will receive enhanced assistance of close to ₹200,000 for each house in plains and over ₹220,000 in hilly regions. This enhanced allocation is over 67 per cent more than the current assistance for rural houses. The increased assistance was approved in the interim Budget for FY25.

The urban component of the scheme ensures assistance for availing cheaper loans for affordable houses.

Since the inception of PMAY-Grameen, a total of 4.21 crore houses have been completed for eligible poor families during the last 10 years of the Modi government, an official statement said.

All the houses constructed under PMAY are equipped with basic amenities like toilets, LPG connection, electricity connection and tap water through convergence with other schemes of the central and state governments.

NDA govt must tackle unemployment problem: Rajiv Kumar

Prime Minister Narendra Modi led—NDA government in its third term must tackle the problem of unemployment in the country, especially in the unorganised sector and in small and medium enterprises, former NITI Aayog Vice Chairman Rajiv Kumar said on Monday.

“We must recognise that post—COVID economic recovery has been a K-shaped recovery. I think the most important reforms that the Modi government must take is one to tackle the unemployment problem, especially in the unorganised and the small and medium enterprises,” he told PTI in an interview.

PTI

PM-KISAN fund, Modi emphasised his government’s commitment to “kisan kalyan” (farmers’ welfare). He expressed the government’s dedication to continue working for farmers and the agriculture sector in the future.

However, the opposition Congress criticized the move, stating that it was merely clearing pending dues, as the 17th instalment was due in April and May but could not be distributed due to the model code of conduct.

Under PM-KISAN, the central government provides ₹6,000 to each eligible farmer per year in three equal instalments as income support.

Apart from the Centre, many state governments, particularly those ruled by the BJP, have announced measures aimed at helping the poor and underprivileged class after the 2024 General Election results.

In Haryana, the Nayab Singh Saini government has announced several measures aimed at the poor and the youth since June 4. These measures include opening appointments for 50,000 posts in various government departments, providing 1000 km of free bus rides to 2.2 million poor households through a smart card, renovation of hostels and dharamshalas belonging to SCs and STs, and distribution of plots to below poverty line (BPL) families.

Haryana is set to go into polls in the next few months, with the parliamentary poll setback for the BJP fresh in its mind — the party lost five Lok Sabha seats to the Congress.

In Rajasthan, where the ruling BJP lost 11 seats to the opposition, the Bhajan Lal Sharma government has decided to top up the Centre’s PM-KISAN with an additional ₹2,000 per annum. Once this is implemented, farmers in the state will receive ₹8,000 as income support.

In Uttar Pradesh, where the ruling BJP fared poorly, the Yogi Adityanath government has announced measures to prevent paper leaks in examinations. The steps include streamlining the process of delivering papers, using two or more paper sets for every examination shift, mandatory CCTV vigil in every room where examination is being conducted, and reducing delays in the recruitment process.

Several experts blamed repeated paper leaks in UP and inordinate delays in conducting tests for government vacancies as being one of the main grievances of the youth against the ruling dispensation, which the opposition managed to capitalise on.

Coffers dry, task cut out for Naidu to deliver on promises

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Amaravati (Andhra Pradesh), 10 June

Telugu Desam Party (TDP) supremo N Chandrababu Naidu (pictured), who is set to take the reins of power in Andhra Pradesh shortly, will have the daunting task of making bleak coffers ring to fulfill the “Super Six” that his party promised during the run-up to the recently concluded Assembly elections.

Naidu is scheduled to be sworn in as Andhra Pradesh chief minister on June 12.

As a precursor to his journey of financial challenges, Naidu needs over ₹4,500 crore to disburse social pensions to about 6.5 million beneficiaries by July 1.

As part of his “Super Six”, Naidu promised to hike the monthly pension to ₹4,000 from the existing ₹3,000 (₹1,000 for April, May, and June) from July.

All together it would cost the exchequer ₹4,500 crore in July, besides salaries to employees and pensioners, which is pegged at another ₹6,000 crore.

The new TDP government will have to mop up over ₹10,000 crore to fulfill the financial requirements for July, a retired senior bureaucrat said.

According to him, the state government has a committed expenditure of nearly ₹1.30 trillion annually to meet the requirements of salaries, pensions, loan repayments and interests.

According to the Reserve Bank of India website, the Andhra government offered to sell securities worth ₹2,000 crore on June 11 through auction. The state needs ₹2,600 crore every month to meet the social pension alone.

Similarly, as part of the manifesto, the TDP promised free travel to women in government-run buses.

An official of Andhra Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation said the APSRTC earns about ₹450 to ₹500 crore through ticket revenue monthly and women passengers are expected to be in the range of 35-40 per cent.

He, however, said there was no study on women travelers done so far in the state.

According to him, the Telangana RTC which implements a similar scheme estimated that women constitute nearly 50 per cent of the total commuters. Towards the free travel scheme, the new government will have to reimburse nearly ₹2,000 crore annually to the APSRTC.

Under “Super Six”, the TDP also promised ₹15,000 to every school-going child per annum. The outgoing YRS Congress Party government had earmarked ₹6,500 crore towards a similar scheme called “Amma Vodi”.

With Naidu removing the cap on the number of beneficiaries, the amount may go up substantially.

कार्लो हा कॅथॉलिक चर्चचा पहिला ‘मिलिनियल संत’ ठरणार आहे. ज्या मुलांचा जन्म १९८० ते १९९० च्या दशकात झाला आहे, त्यांना ‘मिलिनियल जनरेशन’ म्हणतात. कार्लोचा जन्म ३ मे १९९१ रोजी लंडनमध्ये झाला होता. नंतर त्याचे वास्तव्य मिलानमध्ये होते. २००६ मध्ये वयाच्या १५ व्या वर्षी रक्ताच्या कर्करोगाने त्याचे निधन झाले. एवढ्या लहान वयात त्याने ख्रिस्ती धर्माचा प्रचार करण्यासाठी संकेतस्थळांची निर्मिती केली होती. व्हॅटिकन संबंधित संस्थेसाठी त्याने काम केले होते. ‘गॉड्स एम्फ्युएस्स’ आणि ‘इंटरनेटचा संत’ अशीही त्याची ओळख होती.
